

2021-22 Chenter Foundation Cathy and Tony Chen Scholarship

Alexandra Woroniecka
PC `20, BM `24, violin

Alexandra Woroniecka, 19, is a Polish-American violinist currently studying at The Juilliard School under Mr. Hyo Kang. She appeared on NPR's From the Top show number 387, was a Semi-Finalist in the Cooper International Competition in 2017 in Oberlin, OH, and advanced to the remaining 10 in the 2019 Cooper International Competition. Alexandra is also a recipient of The Paul Rudoff Scholarship and the Educational Grant from Concert Festival. She has performed in well-known halls such as Carnegie Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Merkin Hall, The Łancut Castle in Poland, and at the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center Young Musicians Concert in 2015. Alexandra has played in masterclasses for Shmuel Ashkenasi, Yu-Chien Tseng, Rodney Friend, Masao Kawasaki, Daniel Phillips, Paul Kantor, Gerardo Ribeiro, Blair Milton, Naoko Tanaka, the Emerson Quartet, and Kikuei Ikeda. During her summers, she has attended Zenon Brzewski International Music Courses in Poland, Heifetz International Music Festival, HIMA Music Festival in Iceland, Summer Violin Institute in Northwestern, IL, and Meadowmount School of Music.